

Standard: LAFS.910.RH.1.3: Analyze in detail a series of events described in a text; determine whether earlier events caused later ones or simply preceded them.

Essential Question: How does a speaker use rhetoric to advance his or her purpose?

Bell Ringer: Name one thing you wish your cell phone did for you that it currently does not.

Here are the Spelling Words for this week:

business

definite family

first friend

imagine

medicine

opinion

piece

religion

Now look up the definition of each word.

Fill in the blank with the correct word from the word bank. Use the context of the sentence to determine which word should be used.

1. It is important to take your _____ as the doctor tells you.
2. There is a _____ difference in the weather this week.
3. Do you have an _____ about the best restaurant in the city?
4. The Constitution of the United States guarantees freedom of _____.
5. Charlotte could _____ being a famous singer someday.
6. Mrs. Arnold wants to start a food truck _____.
7. Chris ate a large _____ of pizza for lunch.
8. Liam asked all of our _____ to his backyard party.

Click the link below read and follow instructions, watch the tutorial (Analyzing Wilson's War Message) or View in PDF format

Next, answer the question using your very own words. How does a speaker use rhetoric to advance his or her purpose?

How does a speaker use rhetoric to advance his or her purpose?